Methodology

Efficient Information Processing

Seeks better understanding of reward relative to risk, continually calibrating probability of future outcomes.

Common Framework

Utilized across all major benchmark sectors, assesses common quantitative and qualitative factors.

Repeatable Process

Allows conviction to be calibrated in the form of dynamic position sizing, addressable to various market environments.

Stock Selection Focus

Isolates idiosyncratic factors, allowing stock selection to drive alpha and mitigate drawdowns from unintended factors.

Process

SWS Growth Equity employs a systematic, fundamental research-based process to identify companies with sustainable competitive advantage and compelling cash flow attributes. The ongoing investment process allows active response to new information and enables conviction assessments across multiple opportunity sets, utilizing the same process, every time, on every decision.

Important Disclosures

Data are shown as of 2/28/2023; source: FactSet and Charles Schwab & Co. Performance results and comparisons are made on a total-return basis, which includes all income from dividends and interest, and realized and unrealized gains or losses. Prior to Jan 1, 2020, SWS Growth Equity was named "Dynamic Growth Opportunities (DGO)." SWS Growth Equity's stated benchmark is the Russell 1000 Growth Index, with S&P 500 Index results provided as a reference. SWS Growth Equity returns are shown both gross and net of fees and are calculated by asset weighting total returns of the strategy's composite accounts. These results are geometrically linked monthly for all periods shown. Gross return excludes advisory fees paid to the firm. Net returns include the time-weighted deduction of the strategy accounts' weighted average wrap fee (which includes both SWS's management fee and trading costs) and assume all cash flows occur at month-end. Sector classifications as defined by SWS Partners. Geographic data defined by corporate headquarters domicile of the issuer. Price-to-earnings ("P/E"), price-to-book ("P/B"), and price-to-sales ("P/S") ratios are presented on a GAAP basis. Companies with negative trailing 12-mos earnings, and those with P/E ratios above 250x, are excluded from the weighted average P/E ratio calculation. Companies with a P/S ratio above 150x are excluded from the weighted P/S ratio calculation. This investment strategy is subject to management risk such that no assurance may be given that the portfolio's value will be more than the original investment. The investment return and principal value of SWS Partners, LLC portfolios will fluctuate as the stock and bond markets fluctuate such that an investor's shares and/or portfolio value, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. This portfolio of individual equity and pass-through securities is subject to risks including but not limited to portfolio concentration risk, company-specific risk, regulatory risk, financial market risk, global economic risk, credit risk, interest rate risk, foreign market risk that may involve currency, political, and social risk. Diversified portfolio strategies do not assure or guarantee better performance and do not eliminate the risk of investment losses. The portfolio holdings list shown should not be considered a recommendation to purchase or sell any particular security and it should not be assumed that any security holding shown was or will be profitable. The portfolio's holdings and allocation are subject to change based on the discretion of SWS Partners, LLC. Different types of investments involve varying degrees of risk and there can be no assurance that any specific investment will be suitable for a client's portfolio. Investors should consider the risks, charges, and expenses carefully before investing in this or any other strategy. Investors should ensure the strategy presented fits within their investment objectives. The Russell 1000 Growth Index is a market cap-weighted index of common stocks incorporated within the US and its territories and may not necessarily be substantially similar to your portfolio.
